CONTRACTS will positively not be allowed to exceed their space, or advertise other than the legitimate business, except by paying specially for the same.

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the cheapest paper published in North Carolina. It is only one dollar per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

The war vessels in the Norfolk harbor welcomed a Danish vessel with salutes last Monday.

LEO WHEAT will give two concerts in the Academy of Music at Baltimore on the 6th and 7th of this month.

Miss GOOD of Norfolk is said by a society editor to be making a most pleasing impression in Washington.

SIXTY prominent business men in New Orleans representing a capital of ten million dollars signed a memorial to the legislature protesting again the impeachment of Kellogg.

Green peas from Florida sell in New York at $4 50-$5 per crate and cucumbers at from $5 to $6 per dozen. Strawberries bring from four to five dollars a quart.

While the workmen were hampering at the gallows in the sound of his ears the negro prisoner poked his mouth through the bars and wanted to know if they were "first-class carpenters." Portsmouth, Va., claims this negro.

MR. WILLIAM BEAL is in the mountains of this State procuring a full assortment of our native timbers for exhibition at the Centennial. He has made arrangements for the proper preparing and polishing of the same and for their proper exhibition.

WELL may that Raleigh negro say: "Ten years is a long time for a negro to stay foaled, and the colored man had better try them that never promised nut'n and stood square to what they was, an' always helped us with money and meat, than be shoutin' and goin' crazy over a set of white men who's got no use for us cep'n for office an' that words is smoother's butter while they ain't got no more rau'l heart for the nigger than a government mule."

The editor of the Washington Gazette returns thanks to a revival meeting that city for making him a special subject of prayer, and suggests at the next meeting that an agreeable tenor voice with a winning style of supplication shall make a special effort in his behalf. Any man with the same amount of mean liquor under his vest could have made the same suggestion. We have no patience with papers whose editors are disposed to jeer at the clergy in any manner, shape or form. If a minister prove a fraud let the fraud be written up, but always with the hat off and the greatest reverence for the master he has betrayed, and the editor who fails to keep the reverence bump of his cranium well developed in the editing of his paper will, nine times out of ten, die like a brute and be buried with the burial of an ass.

AY, GIVE US THEIR NAMES.
The Sentinel of the 29th February contains the following:

"Many of the anonymous communications complained of were written by printers and working-men of various classes of the city, who will have no objection to giving their names to any person aggrieved."

We ask Mr. Turner to comply with this promise either by publishing the real names of his anonymous correspondents or by sending them to this office if he is too bashful to publish them. Let the NEWS and the public know who "Typo," in the Sentinel of the 21st, "Democrat," in that of the 23d, "Employer," in the Sentinel of —, and the author of the editorial in the Sentinel of the 23d, are, and we will not only show the motives of these incendiary articles but we propose to give said writers an opportunity to swear to their statements.

An autograph letter of John Randolph has just been deposited in the Virginia State Library. The letter is addressed to James Jones, M. D., of Nottoway county. Mr. Randolph wrote from Washington Jan. —, 1821. We quote a single extract from the letter, it fits so nicely the public men of the present day:

"Nothing new here. A certain be-but can't be great man is fast running out—not at the spigot, but the bung—literally talking himself down."

GRAND JURIES AND SOLICITORS.

We ask attention to the elaborate and exceedingly able opinion delivered by Mr. Justice Bynum in the case of A. M. Lewis, Jr., vs. the Board of Commissioners of Wake county and published in our yesterday's issue. The Supreme Court decides that a witness summoned generally to appear before a grand jury to "testify in a certain matter then and there to be inquired of," is not entitled to remuneration for his attendance, but that witnesses are entitled to pay only when they go before a grand jury upon an indictment regularly framed with the names of the witnesses endorsed upon it.

The more important portion of the opinion however, is its definition of the rights and duties of Solicitors; a reference to the opinion will show that every prosecuting officer in the State has been in the habit of exercising privilege not warranted by law. A Solicitor has no authority to instruct a grand jury in matters of law or even to put his foot within a grand jury room. It is to be deplored that a case in which this question could have been decided had not previously been carried to the Supreme Court. Had grand juries been aware of their rights and Solicitors informed of their duties it is possible that our criminal dockets in this District would not be overburdened with those peculiar classes of indictments that have recently afflicted them, and moreover our counties and tax-paying citizens would have escaped the burden of paying much unnecessary and illegal costs.

THE HERALD AND MOORE'S CREEK.

The New York Herald again has its correspondent under orders in this State. Mr. Foster at once proceeded to Wilmington en route for the Moore's Creek Centennial, which was celebrated last Monday. He telegraphed the Herald that he found all Wilmington agog over the celebration and two steamboats were to leave on Monday to land the passengers in two miles of the famous bridge. Moore's Creek is thirty miles from Wilmington and eighteen miles from any railroad.

Now, look to the files of the Sentinel and it will be seen that directly after this suit was brought the virtuous editor of the Sentinel began to exhaust himself on Sweson.

Now, these are the facts. What do the people think of such a man? If we should call him a base, we ingrate him might indite us for libel; but he cannot indict the people if they should think and say that such language aptly describes Josiah Turner.

But it may be asked, why is this the case of McAden vs. Turner?

Why is Sweson not the plaintiff?

Let Mr. Ike Strayhorn (Turner's law partner, and a Radical) say why McAden is the plaintiff. Let him also say why judgment was confessed.

It was because, Joe Turner wished to cover up the facts. Because he was not willing to let it be known that Sweson's money bought the debt.

[Signed] JOSIAH TURNER, JR.

Personalty, I desire to see me George Laws, Clerk of the Superior Court of Orange County, and O. Hooker, Guardian of J. Turner, Jr., State and affidavit and confession. J. Turner, Jr., of judgment.

The defendants a/s/c/e.

I. That Josiah Turner, Sr., is a lunatic and O. Hooker is his guardian.

The reason assigned by many is that the Sentinel and Standard both belong to Sweson, &c. I am not the man to assail my friends, but there are acts of a public character which I consider to be even condemnable. I have even refused correspondents who were assailing me.

I have letters by the peck asking why I allow the head centre of the ring to go unnamed, &c.

Clipping Horses—What Dan Mac Thinks About It.

Early this winter some philanthropists in this city, and Albany, believing that the practice of horseflesh was a cruel and dangerous practice so far as the health and comfort of the animal is concerned, attempted to stop it in some way. The effort was assumed any definite form in this city, but in Albany an attempt was made to enact a city ordinance prescribing a penalty for the clipping of any horse in that city. Persons who claimed to know something about the horse said that it was better for the horse to be clipped than to be allowed to grow his coat of hair all the winter. The clipping last week contained the following on the subject written by well-known turfman Dan Mac:

I am often asked my opinion about the practice of clipping horses! There has always been quite a difference on this subject, but it has got to be almost a universal practice among those owning fast horses for road purposes to clip them. One argument greatly in its favor is the fact that it is done so extensively, and that mostly fast and valuable horses which are clipped if it was injurious to them could not be practised, as no man being more tenderly cared for than a fine horse. A clipped horse performs his work easier, comes from the road in better condition and is easier taken care of. Instead of steaming nearly all night under his blanket, till towards morning, he is chilled through with the dampness as is the case with a horse having his long hair pulled off. His blanket is off, and he is ready for his supper dinner, as the case may be—clipping will help put a horse in condition. It has been known to cure a chronic cough. Mind, I don't want to work horses clipped or any that have to stand in the streets. I am speaking of horses used for pleasure which have proper care. A clipped horse has extra blankets to keep him warm when he is not being exercised. I clip all my horses, half about hairy at times, as they would always make a trotter dry and comfortable after a sharp breeze on the road in sleighing time! It is most an impossible job. First, it is hard to keep the blankets off long enough to rub sufficiently, and secondly, if they get him dry ten to one he "breaks out" again in less than half an hour.

About Husband and Wives.

Appleton's Journal says: Immigration and indifference sometimes changes the character of men. A husband returns from his business at evening. During his absence, and throughout the live-long day the wife has been busy with mind and hands preparing some little surprise, some unexpected pleasure to make him more attractive than ever. He enters and sees to more of what has been done to please him than if he were a blind man, and has nothing more to say about it than he were dumb. Many a loving wife has given up her home, a bidding now day after day from causes like this, until in process of time, the love and enthusiasm of her original nature have burned out and mutual indifference spreads its pall over the household.

Many women have little idea of how greatly they shock the tastes and really endanger the affections of their husbands by their unseemly domestic apparel. There are many who are still ignorant of clothing apparel who would not prefer some simple and chaste adornment for his wife in the morning, to any extreme of splendor at the evening ball. Let a woman by all means dress brilliantly on those occasions, that render proper; we have no desire to abridge her privileges nor balk her instincts in this particular, but we claim that it is important for her, if she values her household serenity, that she should give up all that her customers, domestic attire. Those people who go about the house untidily dressed has no right to the love of the woman. She is without those marks and indications by which she can be classed.

Drunkenness in Scotland.

A return relating to drunkenness in Scotland obtained from the Scotch Times, says that the total number of persons arrested in Scotland for drunkenness during the year ended June 30, 1875, was 61,173, of whom 38,213 were as "drunk and incapable" and 22,990 as drunk and disorderly." Of the former class 11,06 were arrested between eight o'clock A. M. on Sunday and eight o'clock A. M. on Monday, and of the latter class 1,273. The report also shows that during the year just past, 1,000 persons taken into Glasgow for being "drunk and incapable" of whom 445 were arrested between eight o'clock A. M. on Sunday and eight o'clock A. M. on Monday. The column headed "drunk and disorderly" is left blank as regards Glasgow.

Lively at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, March 1.—Indications of lively times to-morrow over the impeachment business. The House may proceed in a body to the Senate and demand the impeachment of Kellogg.

Bull fights at Madrid.

LONDON, March 1.—A special telegram from Madrid to the News states that thirty thousand men will be sent to Cuba immediately. There will be three days bull fighting and other festivities on the entry of royal troops into Madrid.

Isabella.

LONDON, March 1.—It is stated that Isabella will go to Castile to near Madrid immediately after King Alfonso's return. The Spanish Embassy officially denies that ex-Queen Isabella has any political motive in visiting Spain.

A London Marriage.

LONDON, March 1.—The marriage of Professor Tyndall to Miss Louisa, daughter of Lord Claud Hamilton, took place yesterday at West Minister Abbey. The rite was performed by Dean Stanley. Among the present were Thomas Carlyle, Professor Huxley, Doctor Hooker and Sir F. Pollock.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Exactly So—The Negroes Waking Up! —They Once Were Blind But Now They See—Where's That Forty Acres and a Mule? —"Farwell!" Office-Holders.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—A delegation of colored men called on the rooms of the Democratic National Committee, asking political recognition. Their printed declaration was adopted by a large meeting held here Friday Feb. 28th commences as follows: "We colored men representing nearly all the States and Territories of the United States," and concludes: "We are tired of our self imposed party yoke its injustice and absurdity, violation of the Constitution in order to trample out local self-government and insult our brave and well disposed fellow citizens of the South, and we earnestly believe that a division of the solid phalanx of colored voters will act beneficially upon the two great parties, and therefore we propose to stand by principles and will support no one who would do with us for us. This policy we believe will ensure to the lasting tranquility of the country and a speedy return to good feeling between the late master and the now free citizen. We invoke the blessing of Almighty God upon this carefully considered departure and invite the hearty and cordial co-operation of the colored people of the country, who are in the cause for well grounded complaint, to organize to the end that their ballots may subserve the peace of the country, the fraternalization of all the people and the prosperity and unification of all the sections of our undivided republic. The committee on resolutions are Rev. Garland H. White of North Carolina, Howard D. Smith of Virginia, Robert D. Morris of Rhode Island, Alex. Jones of Massachusetts, Mr. Book of Pennsylvania, David Lewis of District of Columbia, Dr. Riley of Arkansas, C. L. Vincent, Illinois. All persons in favor of the movement will please address Rev. Garland H. White, President, No. 1,013, 18th Street, Washington, D. C., or Howard D. Smith, Secretary National Independent Political Union, Washington, D. C.

Railroad Kings in Council:

NEW YORK, March 1.—It is understood that certain Illinois and other Western railroads are cutting down freight to save money. A meeting was held at St. Nicholas Hall today to discuss railroad matters and the adjustment of freight. The following roads were represented: Central & Hudson, Michigan Central, Fort Wayne, Baltimore & Ohio, Pennsylvania Central and Erie. These roads were represented by Messrs. Jewett and Bishop of Erie, Messrs. Scott and King of Baltimore & Ohio, Mr. McCullough of Fort Wayne and A. J. Cassatt, Vice President of the Pennsylvania Central.

All Hall, Linderman.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Linderman, director of the mint, was before the Appropriation Committee and the Senate to commence special resumption of coinage. The sum is $15,000,000 in silver coin and millions now ready for use, with a large amount of quarters and dimes on hand. They could start the mints on silver at any time. The committee were undecided at the time of adjourning whether to withhold the appropriation for printing fractional currency.

Von Arnim.

LONDON, March 1.—A Berlin special says Emperor William refuses a safe conduct for Von Arnim to visit his sick son at Berlin and the application for pardon by Von Arnim's family remains unanswered. The present charges against the Count embrace high treason and insulting the Emperor, Bismarck and a foreign officer.

THE EARLY STAGES OF DISEASE.—Those conditions of the body in which it becomes most vulnerable to healthful activity, are singularly and curiously, in fact the early stages of disease. They are the result of a general weakness of local or general origin, and can only be permanently overcome by an efficient and judicious diet, and a cleanly estate which is neither too refined nor too coarse.
